Following the lecture the members of the local branch of the Young Men's Institute will entertain Mr. Clemments and a number of invited guests with a banquet at the Frankfort Hotel.

PASTIME CLUB—EASTER DANCE.

The Big Coliseum Rink last Thursday evening was the scene of one of the most delightful social events of the season, the occasion being the annual Easter Dance given by the Pastime Club, Frankfort's leading social organization.

Scores of beautiful girls from all over the far-famed Blue Grass region graced this pleasant event with their presence, over sixty couples being present. The celebrated Second Regiment full band of fourteen pieces furnished the music, which, as usual was excellent in every detail. At midnight on elegant repast was served by Adams & Gonnella. After intermission dancing was resumed and continued until the wee sma hours, when every one left with many expressions of having spent the most pleasant evening of their life.

ENTERTAINS "LOFTERS."

The Lofting Club was beautifully entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Thos. J. Nunn and Mrs. J. P. Hobson, at the residence of Mrs. Hobson, on Shelby street. Many of the club members being absent, their places were filled by friends.

Miss Page and Misses and Virginia Nunn were the hostesses in entertaining their guests and their guests.

One of the most enjoyable of the afternoon was rendered by Misses Priscilla Williams and L. Genevieve Posey.

At five o'clock the club members and their guests were regaled with a delicious luncheon.

The house was made more than usually attractive by the addition of many beautiful house plants and cut flowers. The club's guests were Mrs. Sam. J. Shackelford, Mrs. R. L. Stout, Mrs. Elmer Vreeland, Mrs. J. C. O'Rear, Mrs. C. C. Herndon, Mrs. J. G. McLean, Mrs. Tyler and Misses Helm, French, Williams, Smith, Cross-wait, Edelen, Towles, McGowen, Jackson and Moss.

MONTGOMERY—SCHOOLFIELD HOME WEDDING.

Miss Anne Montgomery and Mr. Charles Schoolfield were married Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Montgomery, in this city. It was one of the handsomest home weddings ever seen in Frankfort, and on account of the prominence of the bride and the popularity of the groom, was the event of the season. The Montgomery home is one of the handsomest in Frankfort and it was decorated profusely. The parlor, where the ceremony was performed, was decorated in white and green and the bridal couple stood under a canopy made of smilax, ferns and easter lilies. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert E. Abraham, of Middlesboro, who is an old friend of the Montgomery family. The only attendants were Miss Elizabeth Mason Montgomery, a sister of the bride, and Mr. Arthur C. VanWinkle, an intimate friend of the bridegroom.

The guests present numbered about 100, the invitations being limited. The dining room was beautifully decorated in pink and white tulle and pink roses. The bride's table, at which twenty-four persons were seated, was covered with a rare old table cloth, which was used at the wedding of the bride's mother. The table was beautiful. The bride wore an imported gown of hand embroidered net and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, and wore the regulation bridal veil of tulle. The young couple left on the 7:45 C. & O. train for the east, and will be at home in Frankfort about May 1. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Thomas Bennett, of Lexington; Mrs. J. B. Brashear and Miss Brashear, of Louisville; Dr. Henry Orendorf, of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, of Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Schoolfield, of Danville. Mr. Schoolfield is a young lawyer, who came to Frankfort a short time ago from Danville, and has been very successful in his practice before the Court of Appeals. Mrs. Schoolfield is one of the most attractive young women of Frankfort and is very popular. She is a graduate of Smith College, and is known widely for her many accomplishments and beauty.
